

Bibliography Guidelines

Deadline: Wednesday, May 1 before 12 noon
ntakeda.aogaku@yahoo.com

For your bibliography, you need:

→ a minimum of three sources (one source in Japanese; two sources in English)

Remember these points for your bibliography:

1. Each source is single-spaced.
2. Leave two spaces between each source.
3. Indent the second line of each source (use the TAB key on your computer).
4. List your sources in alphabetical order.
5. Use correct MLA referencing for each source.
5. Your bibliography should look like the sample below.

Bibliography

Brown, Anthony. "Japanese TOEIC Scores Lowest in Asia." The Japan Times.
7 March 2006, 2. Print.

Crystal, David. English as a Global Language. Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2003. Print.

Gibelman, Mark. "The Downside of English as a Global Language." Journal of Education
35.3 (1999): 367-376. Print.