Asian English as a Lingua Franca

Listening Activity

Global Listening:

1. How many speakers are there?
   ______________________________________________________

2. What is the topic? (note down key words)
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

3. Do you think the main speaker is an advanced speaker?
   Why or why not?
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
Discrete Listening:

1. Where did one of the women speakers have to wait?
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

2. What did she do while she was waiting?
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

3. Why did she have to wait?
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________