

Types of Final Thoughts

A. Write down the type of final thought for each example.

B. Which one do you think is the best? Why?

1. If it had not been for the UN's World Food Program, over 56 million children would have gone without food last year.

Final thought: _____

2. For the United Nations to promote and protect human rights, there is a great need for consensus among the permanent Security Council members.

Final thought: _____

3. Although the UN has not been able to solve all our global problems, it is more important to focus on its accomplishments in the past fifty years. Can we think of another organization that has been able to reach so many of the world's poorest across the globe?

Final thought: _____

4. As the former UN Security General, Kofi Annan, said "More than ever before in human history, we share a common destiny. We can master it only if we face it together. And that, my friends, is why we have the United Nations."

Final thought: _____

The Don'ts of Final Thoughts

Discuss with your partner why these final thoughts are ineffective for a concluding paragraph.

1. I think it is important to know how the United Nations helps the world.
2. There are many global problems, but the United Nations tries to make the world a better place.
3. Although there are some problems in the world, people should try to be happy and peaceful.
