

British English Transportation Vocabulary

A. Choose the correct British term for the corresponding American term.

bonnet	dual carriageway	pavement
boot	flyover	petrol
B road	lorry	silencer
car park	motorway	ticking over

American English	British English
divided highway	_____
freeway	_____
gasoline	_____
hood	_____
idling	_____
muffler	_____
overpass	_____
parking lot	_____
rural road	_____
sidewalk	_____
truck	_____
trunk	_____

B. Complete the following sentences with the correct British term.

1. We should take the _____ because we need to get there before 10am or we'll be late.
2. Both bicycles and pedestrians use the _____ in Japan.
3. The Tomei Express is an example of a _____.
4. You can often see delivery trucks _____ on the side of the road in front of convenient stores in Japan.
5. Department store _____ are often full on the weekend.
6. Your suitcase won't fit in the back seat. We have to put it in the _____.

