

Types of Conflict

Read each example of conflict. Note down the type of conflict.

Example	Type of Conflict
1. James and Eric compete for the same position on the baseball team.	_____
2. Alexa caught her friend Mary stealing from a classmate. Now she must choose between keeping her friendship with Mary or telling the teacher about her actions.	_____
3. Vanessa makes an art project protesting government corruption. Her art teacher loves the project and tries to feature it in the town art show, but city hall rejects the project. Vanessa and her art teacher are now going to fight for the freedom of expression.	_____
4. Alex and Scott are out at sea on a small fishing boat when a large storm hits. After their boat flips over and sinks during the storm, they try to swim back to the shore. All of a sudden, they see a shark fin circling them.	_____
5. Tara and her friends accept a dare to sleepover in the old abandoned house on the hill. They acted brave at first, but when they started seeing ghosts they tried to run. Tara and her friends struggle to escape with their lives.	_____
6. Robert is a salesman who never adapted to the new ways of doing business. Now he has a new boss who forces him to send text messages. He struggles to use this technology and fears that he will lose his job.	_____
7. Steven dreams of moving to a big city. However, his father has plans for him to take over his hardware store in his hometown when he retires in a few years.	_____